

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

CLUB MEETINGS.

May:- The regular monthly meeting was held in the club room at the State Museum, University of Washington, Wednesday evening, May 4, President Hall presiding. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. This was an open meeting as no regular program had been prepared. Many interesting notes and observations were presented by the members. Mr. L. D. Lindsley showed some enlarged photographs of birds which he had taken in eastern Washington. Meeting then adjourned.

June:- The regular monthly meeting was held in the club room at the State Museum, Wednesday evening, June 1, President Hall presiding. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, after which, notes of observations were presented by different members. A motion was passed and a committee consisting of S. F. Rathbun, J. Hooper Bowles and Dr. Clinton T. Cooke was appointed to formulate a resolution on the death of Frank H. Renick, one of the charter members of the Club, which was to be sent to the family of the deceased.

Mr. Alfred M. Bailey of the Denver Museum, gave an illustrated talk on birds observed by himself in the swamps of Louisiana and in Southeastern Alaska. Mr. Joe Bernard then gave some notes, illustrated by slides, of some of his observations on the nesting habits of certain birds in the vicinity of Coronation Gulf. S. F. Rathbun presented some notes on his observations of a recent trip to Westport, western Washington.

It was decided at this meeting not to hold any meetings during the months of July and August. Meeting then adjourned.

-----*-----

FACT AND COMMENT

The monthly meetings of the Club which were discontinued through the months of July and August will be resumed in September. Members will please bear in mind the meeting date, viz., the first Wednesday evening of each month, in the club room at the Museum building, University of Washington campus. It is planned to make these meetings entertaining, and talks of vital interest to all will be scheduled on every program. The officers would like to see as many of the members out on these occasions as is possible.

-*-

It is to be regretted that the Club should lose the immediate services of its energetic secretary, Prof. Robt. H. Palmer, who has recently severed his connection as a member of the faculty at the University of Washington. Prof. Palmer, by his genial personality has endeared himself to the members who have come in contact with him, and he has their best wishes for his success, as he leaves to assume his new duties in the south.

-*-